FY 2024 Gun Violence Mini-Grants

Addendum to the RFA

April 10, 2024

This addendum to the FY24 Gun Violence Mini-Grants, finalized on March 13, 2024, guides the changes to the RFA. The information contained in this addendum supersedes the corresponding information provided in the initial application posting. All other provisions and information provided in the initial application posting that this addendum does not address remain in effect.

Application Deadline (cover page): The RFA is extended to Tuesday, April 30 @ 8pm (EST).

Purpose (p. 3): The categories for funding remain the same, but additional examples of the categories are provided below:

Behavioral Health –

- Arts (Visual, Performing, Literary, Decorative, Therapeutic and Applied)

Restorative Justice (a practice aimed to promote accountability, healing, and reconciliation while reducing recidivism and fostering a sense of community) –

- Community Sports and Activities
- Community Service
- Restorative Circles
- Mediation

Service Delivery (p. 4): The session periods are updated: Session I – May 28 - July 26 / Session II – July 30 - September 30.

Eligibility (p. 5): Faith-based organizations are also eligible to apply. A DC Business License and an Employer Identification Number are no longer required to be submitted with an application.

All other individuals and entities listed in the initial post of the RFA remain eligible to apply.

All other requirements to submit an application listed in the initial post of the RFA remain unchanged. Lastly, applicants are no longer required to register with the District Integrated Financial System (DIFS) Supplier Portal.
