14	Inquiries	Delete the following paragraph: Memoranda of Understanding and/or Letters of Support All applications must include at least three (3) letters of support. These letters should be representative of a multi-disciplinary support base, demonstrate the need, the intended use and expected results from the use of grant funds. The applicant's submission requires a demonstration of collaboration with other related victim service providers. Letters of support alone are not sufficient to demonstrate effective collaboration. Letters of support must be accompanied by an MOU and/or a clear statement from partners regarding the collaboration. Preference is given to organizations and agencies that provide signed Memoranda of Understanding in lieu of or in addition to letters of support. Memoranda of Understanding should detail how the applicant intends to collaborate with other victim service providing agencies within the systems of care available for victims in the District.
