

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT
NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY

Air Quality Community Partnership

The Department of Energy and Environment (the Department) seeks one, or at most two, grantee(s) to (1) plan and implement workshops that will educate residents on the science of air pollution and the laws and regulations that allow DOEE to protect people from harmful emissions; (2) recruit participants, particularly those who have been historically overburdened by air pollution, to provide informed input on draft proposed District air quality regulations; and (3) support at least one creative event in partnership with DOEE, community organizations, and other groups as necessary to draw more community connections between Air Quality and other District initiatives such as, Sustainable DC 2.0 and Clean Energy DC. The amount available for the project is approximately $55,137.
